To advise that agents are not being furnished to Mr. Humboldt to act as guards.

1911

Mr. Scholdt, New York Division, requested to be advised concerning the request previously made by Mr. Vanderbilt to have his stay with him for the next few days to afford him protection.

59. . . .

Mr. Schmidt was instructed that agents could not be utilized as guards for Mr. Vanderbilt.

FROM : R. Rosen

SUBJECT: CONFIDENTIAL
VANDERBILT - VIOLENT
MURKIN

With reference to the letter which Mr. Vanderbilt received the following is furnished:

He has been interviewed and the extortion letter has been obtained and is being sent to the Bureau. You will recall that according to the instructions received Vanderbilt is to be at Gate 6 with $10,000 in money at 8:30 p.m. on May 10, 1931. If he does not bring the money he is to be killed.

Mr. Rosen has interviewed Vanderbilt and he is apparently quite calm. He has no idea what to do. He is a native of Long Island and has an apartment in the city.

Mr. Conley who was at Vanderbilt's place at the time the Agents interviewed Vanderbilt, upon completion of the interview and outside the hearing of Mr. Vanderbilt, told the Agents that they would like very much to go word to Mr. Schmidt about this and have Mr. Schmidt call the Director personally on the matter.

Conley also indicated that Mr. Vanderbilt would like to have a guard with him for the next few days at what he is given and under protection. It might be added and also to advise him to what to do in the event he got any further letters, etc.

There are four leads at his house and the Agents will see Mr. Vanderbilt tomorrow again.

Very truly,
Rosen

2051-3

I do not believe that the Bureau should furnish any protection to Mr. Vanderbilt by having an Agent stay with him for the next few days. It would be a very dangerous and a very expensive thing. If it was a matter of giving protection then certainly we should be guarded available to Mr. Vanderbilt through Conley's sources. I don't think an Agent should be assigned to the protection job.

2. A letter [redacted] [redacted] size" written from [redacted] [redacted] signed [redacted] This is a two page letter half page letter [redacted] [redacted] Attached is an envelope addressed to [redacted]

3. The third letter is dated March 21, 1951, [redacted] [redacted] and the salutation is "Hello [redacted]" This is a four page letter signed "Lester" [redacted]

[redacted] furnished a form known as "Employee's History Record" which bears the signature of [redacted] A. JAMES.

In addition to the above material, [redacted] made available five yellow sheets of accounting paper headed up "Alfred G. Vanderbilt Racing Stable." He stated that each of the employees was allowed additional money while he was working in California. Each of these five sheets bears the signature of both JAMES and LESTER. The five sheets are described as follows:

1. Travelling and expenses for the period ending January 15, 1951.
2. Travelling and expenses for the period ending January 31, 1951.
3. Travelling and Expenses for the period ending February 15, 1951.
4. Travelling and Expenses for the period ending February 28, 1951.
5. Travelling and Expenses for the period ending March 15, 1951.

In addition to the above [redacted] furnished one copy of the "Employee's History Record" for LESTER LESTER which contains LESTER's signature and one copy of "Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate" bearing [redacted]'s signature also.

All of the above material is being sent to the F.B.I. Laboratory for an appropriate examination.

Continuing, [redacted] stated that LESTER JAMES earns a salary of $275 per month plus whatever amount he obtains from the "stakes." It was explained that employees are allowed a certain amount of the racing prizes when a horse that employee works with wins a stake 1950. It was explained that JAMES has been employed as an exercise boy, and he obtains advances during almost every pay period amounting to $20 and $35. Occasionally these advances run more than that. [redacted] pointed out that JAMES had two $100 advances on the following dates: August 15 and August 31, 1950.

[redacted] stated that these advances are not unusual, and explained that a number of the employees are granted advances between pay-days, which are two weeks apart.

[redacted] related that JAMES borrowed $250 about March, 1951, and he signed a note for this amount on April 3, 1951. He is arranged to repay this loan through reductions from his pay. To date he has paid a total of $50 toward retiring this note.

[redacted] advised that LESTER MURRAY, a groom employed at the Sagamore Farms, is paid at the rate of $125 per month plus his earnings from stakes. It was explained that MURRAY may earn from $500 to $1,600 over the period of one year from these stakes.

It was pointed out that JAMES' earnings from stakes amounted to about $300 to $1,600 per year.

[redacted] requested that all of the material described previously in this report be returned to him when it has served its purpose. He advised that this material contained the only available identifying specimens of ARREST JAMES and LESTER MURRAY.

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
ALFRED GEORGE VANDERBILT - VICTIM;
EXTORTION

Call: 9:22 a.m.

ASAC Hargett, New York, telephonically advised that Mr. Vanderbilt has decided that he wants to personally appear at Gate Six at the Belmont Race Track tonight for the pay-off which the extortionist has set for 8 p.m. SAC Scheidt will have over-all supervision of the activities from the radio control station in the New York Office, and ASAC Hargett will afford on-the-spot supervision, heading a squad of approximately twenty-five Agents.

Mr. Vanderbilt will drive his personally owned automobile to the track, leaving home at 7:30 p.m. This will enable him to arrive at Gate Six at 7:55 p.m. Special Agent [redacted] with walkie-talkie radio equipment, will be hidden in the back of Mr. Vanderbilt's car. While proceeding from his home to the track, Mr. Vanderbilt will be surveilled by a car containing Mr. Hargett and other Bureau Agents. This is to make certain that the extortionist is not surveilling Mr. Vanderbilt.

Gate Six faces on Hempstead Avenue, which carries heavy automobile traffic. There is a wooded area with several buildings in the vicinity. A cordon of Agents will cover the pay-off spot by utilizing several houses and three stables which are in the immediate area.

The Bureau's sound truck will be in the area and will have a sign on it indicating it belongs to a feed distributor. Additional automobiles will be held in readiness at appropriate distances throughout the pay-off area.

Mr. Hargett has assured that every precaution has been taken to insure the personal safety of Mr. Vanderbilt. Hargett has conducted a discreet trial run of the plans, and everything is in readiness. Mr. Vanderbilt has indicated that he will stay at the gate for a period of approximately thirty minutes, and that if the extortionist does not show by 8:30 he will return home.

ACTION TAKEN:

RECORDED - 71

ASAC Hargett was instructed to keep the Bureau informed by telephone of every development and to make certain that the Bureau is advised immediately of the events that transpire at the scene of the pay-off tonight.

ALFRED GWYNNE VANDERBILT - VICTIM
EXTORTION

SAC Scheidt advised that [REDACTED] a 15 year old boy, was taken into custody by Bureau Agents at 8:20 p.m. tonight when he appeared at the pay-off location at Belmont Race track designated in a $10,000 extortion note to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. The boy admitted having written the extortion note. He was released to the custody of his parents upon instructions of U. S. Attorney Frank Parker of the Eastern District of New York who indicated further consideration would be given the case in the morning.

[REDACTED] claimed that he had written the extortion note after having seen Mr. Vanderbilt's photograph in a racing journal. He said that it was his own idea; that no one prompted him to write it; and that he really didn't think anyone would take it seriously. He added that he appeared at the pay-off spot just to see what would happen. He was taken into custody without incident when he loitered around the pay-off location for about 20 minutes after Mr. Vanderbilt arrived in his automobile.

Mr. Vanderbilt, who previously indicated his concern over receiving the extortion note, advised SAC Scheidt in New York after the arrest was made that he was greatly relieved and highly pleased at the efficient manner in which this case had been handled by the Bureau.

ACTION TAKEN:

RECORDED - 16

In accordance with the instructions of the U. S. Attorney, [REDACTED] was released to the custody of his parents.

In view of the age of the subject and since no Federal Process has been issued, Mr. Nichols indicated that the New York Division should not issue a press release and Mr. Scheidt was so advised.

Spencer Drayton is being informed by Mr. Scheidt of the developments.

ALFRED GWYNNE VANDERBILT - VICTIM
EXTORTION

ASAC Hargett of New York called Holloman this morning for authority to make a press release in the above-captioned case.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt received an extortion letter threatening his life if he did not leave $10,000 at Gate #6, Belmont Race Track at 8:00 p.m. on May 10, 1951. The New York Office covered this area last night and observed the subject who is a 15-year-old boy and in the 8th grade at school hiding behind trees and cars and carrying a cap pistol. He was surveilled and at dark was approached by the Agents. After talking to him for about one hour he admitted writing the extortion letter.

He comes from a family in which there are five girls and both the mother and father work. The family lives near Belmont Race Track.

Last night the Assistant United States Attorney in New York was contacted and he recommended against placing this boy in jail and recommended that he be placed in the custody of his parents and that this morning the United States Attorney would talk to the boy and would decide as to what to do. Mr. Hargett stated that in all probability there would be no prosecution but that the boy would be placed in the custody of his parents under the system that is followed in New York in the handling of juveniles. 20014-18

Mr. Vanderbilt is very happy over the solution of the case and was amazed at its success. He is very happy and excited over the apprehension of the boy and has interposed no objection to a press release.

RECORDED - 81

The New York Office last night felt that there should be no press release as there would be no prosecution but this morning Mr. Hargett and Mr. Scheidt recommend that in view of the fact that Mr. Vanderbilt is the victim and that there necessarily will be publicity on the matter in view of the number of people at the race track and in the United States Attorney's office who know about the case that a short statement to the press should be made; that such a statement to the press would merely reflect the facts, would not name the boy, and would state that the facts had been presented by the New York Office to the United States Attorney's office who had recommended last night the release of the boy to the custody of his parents. They felt that such a release would be of credit to the Bureau as the boy was not placed in jail but was returned to his parents last night.

The United States Attorney was to talk to the boy this morning and if he does authorize prosecution which is not likely of course these facts will be made known to the press without naming the boy.

I approved the above procedure and the New York Office is making a short statement to the press in line with the above instructions.

I don't share much mandarin sentimentality. A 15 year old boy certainly is not just a "little child". It is this type of mushy thinking that breeds the viciousness of young hoodlums & gangs. If N. Y. Atty. would do anything then try & get State authorities to apt. to merely return him to his parents & such parents as they are will result in nothing good.

There is enclosed an anonymous letter addressed to Mr. A. VANDERBILT, Belmont Race-track, Elmont, Long Island, New York, postmarked May 3, 7:30 A.M., 1951, which reads as follows:

"Dear Mr. A. VANDERBILT

"You will meet me at gate 6 of the Belmont race-track. With 10 thousand dollars in cash you will be along in your car at 8 o'clock P.M. May 10 if you tell anyone I will kill you and whoever you tell and if you do not have the money I will kill you.

"P. S. this is not a joke."

It is requested that this letter be processed for latent prints and also that the handwriting be compared with the anonymous letter file. Elimination prints of the known individuals who handled the letter as well as prints of suspects and handwritten signatures of the latter will be forwarded 5/4/51 for comparison with any latent prints developed and with the handwriting in the anonymous letter.

It is also requested that this letter be immediately returned to the New York Division in the event the subject should request the victim to return it.

 - 2 Accompanying letter beginning "Dear Mr. A. VANDEBILT You will meet me at gate....," ending "P. S. this is no/ a joke."

Result of Examination:

Q1 and Q2 were compared with the appropriate sections of the anonymous letter file without effecting an identification. Appropriate photographic copies of these documents are being added to this file for future reference and comparison purposes.

Q1 is a small correspondence style of envelope which is white in color and has a light blue lining on the inside. This lining has white wavy lines running through it at regular intervals. This envelope measures approximately 4 by 7 1/2 inches and bears no watermark. No stamp was present on this and the evidence was received by the laboratory.

Q2 is a sheet of white bond finish paper which measures approximately 10 1/2 by 7 1/2 inches. This sheet of paper bears a fragmentary watermark which appears to be the Great Seal watermark, which is used on most of the paper used by the United States Government.

Q1 and Q2 were treated for latent fingerprints by the iodine method and you will be advised separately regarding the results of the fingerprint examination. Neither of these documents was treated for silver nitrate inasmuch as this process would alter the original evidence in such a way that the subject would observe the change in the event it is necessary to return these documents to him. In the event Q1 and Q2 are not returned to the subject you may desire to retain them at the Laboratory in order that they may be treated for latent fingerprints by the silver nitrate method.

Specimens Q1 and Q2 are returned herewith. Photographic copies of these documents are retained in the files of the Laboratory.

CALL 10:42 a.m.

SUBJECT: UNKNOWN SUBJECT
LEWIS GUYER; JAMES ABILT, VICTIM
CALO, ILL.

James Hargett, New York, called and advised that Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt, prominent sportsman, had today received through the mail at Belmont Park an extortion letter demanding that he make a payment of $10,000 or that harm would befall him. The payoff is to be set on May 10, 1951, and instructions are given that the payoff be made through a contact to be met at Belmont Park, in the early morning of May 9, 1951.

Mr. Abilt called Mr. Coffey of the Incorporated Racing Association and relayed the matter to S.D. Scheldt.

Hargett stated that the exact wording of the note was not known but that the amounts were en route to Belmont Park to insure the victim and secure the note. 20514-21

Mr. Hargett was instructed to keep the Bureau closely advised of all developments.

For the Bureau's information, a detailed description, together with a diagram of the techniques and methods employed to cover the pay-off scene in the above captioned case, may be found in the report of SA [REDACTED] dated June 5, 1951 at New York.

It is pointed out that the use of radio equipment in this instance proved highly valuable and enabled the command car to properly direct a surveillance of the subject during a period of approximately forty minutes. The suspicious actions of the subject as observed by each post set up were coordinated at the command car and the command car issued instructions to surveil the suspect which might not have developed were there not constant radio contact with all points.

Judge INGH recommended that subject be sentenced for term of minority to Natural Bridge Camp, Greenlee, Virginia. Description of subject and victim set out.

- C -

DETAILS: This is a joint investigation of the following agents: Special Agent in Charge EDWARD SCHEIDT, Assistant Special Agent in Charge EDWARD E. MARGETT, and SAS

On May 3, 1951, [redacted] of the Thoroughbred Protective Bureau, advised this office that ALFRED STEINBERG had received an extortion note addressed to him at his stable, Belmont Park Race Track, on the morning of May 3, 1951.

Accordingly, SA [redacted] and the writer proceeded to Belmont Park Race Track, Elmont, Long Island, and [redacted] the Vanderbilt stables, advised that at approximately 10:00 a.m. on May 3, 1951, he received a letter addressed to the victim. Inasmuch as the handwriting in the envelope was very poor, [redacted] concluded that the writer was probably an individual employed at the stables, and, based on the custom in correspondence of this type, he opened the letter.

[redacted] exhibited the letter to [redacted] and [redacted]. This letter was addressed to Mr. A. VAN DYKE, 100 3rd Avenue Track, Elmont, Long Island, and was postmarked "New York, May 3rd, 7:30 a.m. The letter read as follows:

Thorp W. A. Vanderbilt

"You will meet me at gate 6 of the airport with 10 thousand dollars in cash. I will be alone. In my car at 8 o'clock P.M. I will be waiting for you. I will kill you and I will take the money. I will be alone."

and that he then telephonically returned the letter to the victim. With all the knowledge he had, [redacted] could think of any logical suspect.

NY 100-1673

[] was requested to maintain a trash coverage in the dormitory maintained for VANDERBILT's employees at the track and to obtain, if possible, samples of stationery from the various employees.

[] turned the letter over to SA [] and the writer and it was exhibited to Mr. VANDERBILT at the office of the Thoroughbred Racing Association, Room 925, Chrysler Building, Lexington Avenue, New York City, on the afternoon of May 3, 1951. VANDERBILT at that time could not think of any logical suspects and he returned the letter to the writer so that it could be processed by the FBI Laboratory. Mr. VANDERBILT, at the time of the initial interview, voluntarily agreed to simulate a lay-off at Gate 6, Belmont Park Race Track at 9:00 a.m. on May 10, 1951, per the instructions in the extortion letter, in the event the subject was not identified in the interim.

The extortion letter was forwarded to the FBI Laboratory on May 3, 1951 for a document and fingerprint examination. On May 4, 1951 a number of applicant fingerprint cards containing signatures pertaining to the employees of the Vanderbilt stables were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for a comparison purposes, together with the fingerprint cards [] for elimination purposes.

On May 5, 1951, the FBI Laboratory advised that latent fingerprints were developed in the extortion letter and that the sheet of paper on which the note was written bore a fragmentary watermark which appeared to be the government watermark which is used on most paper used by the United States Government. As a result of the above information, stationery stores in the vicinity of Belmont Park Race Track were canvassed with negative results.

Inasmuch as instant letter was postmarked at Elmont, New York, 7:30 a.m., May 3, 1951, [] at Elmont, New York, was interviewed for the purpose of establishing, if possible, the exact time that instant letter was mailed and the location of the mailbox in which it was dropped. [] stated that inasmuch as the letter was postmarked 7:30 a.m. there was a good possibility that the letter was mailed sometime between 7:00 and 7:30 a.m. at the Elmont Post Office on the morning of May 3rd, since mail picked up from the outlying boxes on the night before was run through the cancelling machine prior to 7:00 a.m. on that date. [redacted] could think of no one who was in the post office between 7:30 and 7:30 a.m. on May 3, 1951 with the exception of [redacted]

[redacted] was located and interviewed on the evening of May 3, 1951 by SA [redacted] and the writer, and he advised that on the morning of May 3, 1951 he picked up his mail as usual between 7:00 and 7:30 a.m., but that during the period while he was at the post office he did not observe any other individuals there. Before interviewing [redacted] it was determined that he had been employed at the Whitney Stables for the past twenty years and was considered a reliable and trustworthy employee.

On May 10, 1951, the following arrangements were made to cover the pay-off at Gate 6, Belmont Park Race Track:

A detailed survey of the area in and around Gate 6, as well as the entire track and surrounding areas, was made. Appropriate maps of the area were obtained. The survey indicated that the area in which the pay-off was to take place contained trees, hedges, flower houses and stables, which offered a number of problems in view of the fact that there was no light whatsoever except at Gate 6 at 8:00 p.m., the scheduled time of the pay-off. At this time of the year, in that area, it is just about dusk at 8:00 p.m.

Gate 6 is located on the north side of Hempstead Turnpike, a main highway artery running east and west, containing six lanes heavily trafficked at high speeds. The mouth of the entrance to Gate 6 narrows down from a width of forty feet at Hempstead Turnpike to a width of twenty feet at the gate, which lies twenty feet in from Hempstead Turnpike. An iron picket fence six feet high curves in on each side of the mouth and the visibility on the track side of the fence is obscured by a hedge about five feet tall. A drive twenty feet wide extends directly north from the gate for a distance of 240 feet where it forms a T intersection with another drive running north and south to the stable area.

The victim, per instructions, drove inside Gate 6 and parked his auto at approximately 7:57 p.m., facing north on the east side of the drive just inside of the gate. On the floor in the rear of the victim's auto, an agent, small in stature, was concealed with a shotgun and a walkie-talkie, referred to as WT-1. This unit was completely concealed in the victim's auto, which was surveilled from his residence to the pay-off spot by car #15, the command car, and car #284.

Car #15, containing three agents equipped with a shotgun, took a position on Hempstead Turnpike about 250 feet east of Gate 6. Car #284, containing two Agents equipped with a machine gun, took a position 200 feet west of Gate 6 on Hempstead Turnpike. One agent was detailed to remain at the victim's residence to handle any phone calls that might be directed there by the subject.

The sound truck, established as unit #1, with three agents concealed in the rear, at approximately 7:00 p.m. proceeded to a point about twenty yards inside Gate 6 on the east side of the drive; the driver emerged from the truck and took cover in the track watchman's office on the west side of the drive, thirty feet in from Gate 6. Unit #1 was equipped with a machine gun and three mild ray lamps. The agents concealed in this unit had an unobstructed view of the victim's auto, as did the driver, who had stationed himself in the watchman's office.

Car #14, containing three agents, drove into the track at approximately 7:00 p.m. and the agents, equipped with a walkie-talkie, designated for identification purposes as WT-2, took cover in a glass-enclosed porch of a cottage fifty feet east of Gate 6 from which they also could observe the pay-off scene.

In a one room office building on the west side of Gate 6 driveway, about 100 feet north of the gate, two agents stationed themselves. From this building they also had a view of Gate 6 and the pay-off scene. In barn #14, eighty feet north of Gate 6 and twenty feet to the west of the driveway, one agent stationed himself. In barn #7, directly west of barn #14, another agent stationed himself. From these two positions, the area directly west of the pay-off scene was fully covered.

At approximately 7:15 p.m., car #13 took cover in the area where the Gate 6 drive forms a T intersection with a drive running north and south through the stable area. This car was in a position to observe anyone approaching Gate 6 from the stable area.

Car #10 containing two agents was established at Biltmore Avenue and Hempstead Turnpike, and car #84, containing two agents, took position at the intersection of Fieldmere Avenue and Hempstead Turnpike. Biltmore Avenue dead-ends into the south side of Hempstead Turnpike about forty feet west of Gate 6, and Fieldmere Avenue dead-ends into the south side of Hempstead Turnpike about thirty feet west of Gate 6.

Two agents took cover in a diner located on the southeast corner of Fieldmere Avenue and Hempstead Turnpike, and two agents stationed themselves in a bar and grill on the southeast corner of Biltmore Avenue and Hempstead Turnpike. From these positions the agents could observe anyone approaching Gate 6.

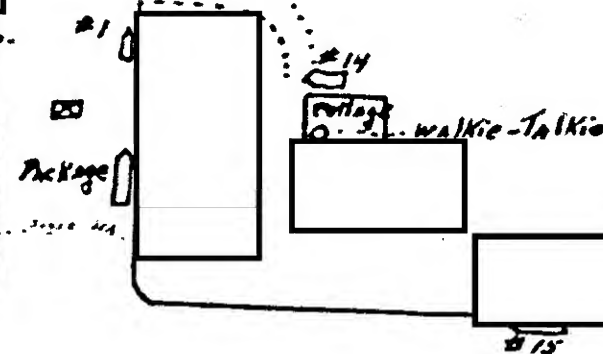

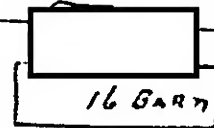

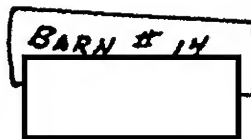

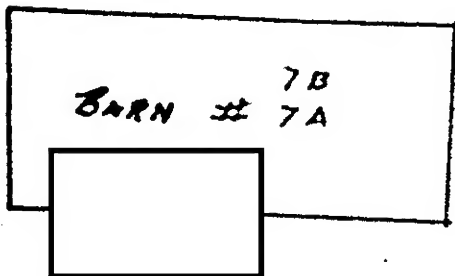

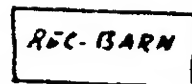

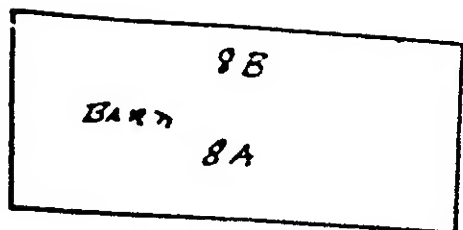

All automobiles used on this surveillance were equipped with two-way radios and radio station WFBV was on the air to handle all ground calls from agents on foot. During the course of the entire surveillance, perfect contact was maintained between the radio cars, the sound truck, the walkie-talkie, and station WFBV.

There is being inserted in the following page of this report a diagram which sets forth the position of the automobiles and agents utilized in covering the pay-off.

NY 9-1673

At approximately 8:00 p.m., a youth about fifteen to sixteen years of age, wearing a blue sweater, was observed approaching Gate 6 by Agent [redacted]. The youth walked slowly passed the victim's auto and Agent [redacted] noticed that the youth glanced furtively at the auto as he walked by. The youth was observed by Agent [redacted] as he slowly walked up Gate 6 drive a distance of 240 feet, where the drive forms a T intersection with a road running east and west through the stable area.

b6

SA [redacted] who had stationed himself in the track watchmen's office, also observed this youth as he wandered through Gate 6 past the victim's car and up the driveway. Agent [redacted] by telephone, communicated with station WFTV the fact that he had also observed this youth standing on the south side of Hempstead Turnpike directly opposite Gate 6 from approximately 7:45 p.m. on that evening.

As the youth approached the T intersection at the northern end of Gate 6 drive, he came into the view of Agents [redacted] who communicated this fact by radio to the command car. The youth was observed hovering around that area for a few minutes looking back in the direction of Gate 6. He then proceeded to walk through the stable area in a southerly direction, and Agent [redacted] was instructed to follow on foot. The youth, as he walked through the track area, constantly looked behind and from the shadow of trees and bushes, stopped to observe the pay-off spot. He eventually emerged from the track area via Gate 6 and walked west on Hempstead Turnpike to the entrance to Gate 6, where he hesitated and walked across Hempstead Turnpike to a point opposite Gate 6.

The youth at this point was in clear vision of car #1 which had taken a position west of Gate 6. Approximately 25 minutes had elapsed and during this period the youth was in the constant view of agents surveilling the pay-off scene.

At approximately 8:25 p.m. the youth started to walk south on Fieldstone Avenue away from the track. An agent from car #10 and an agent from car #84 joined in the surveillance. Car #284 also joined the surveillance, having been dispatched by radio, and when it became apparent at 8:30 p.m. that the suspect was not going to return to the scene of the pay-off, and since it was now completely dark, the agents surveilling the youth on foot were instructed, through instructions dispatched to car #284, to close in on the youth and question him.

At approximately 8:30 p.m., about two blocks south of Hempstead Turnpike on Fieldmore Avenue, SAS [redacted] approached the youth, removed a Remington-Union City cap pistol from his person (this pistol was lodged in the youth's belt between his shirt and trousers), and questioned him in Bureau car #284.

At approximately 9:00 p.m., in the presence of SA [redacted] the youth admitted mailing an extortion note to Mr. VANDERBILT on stationery that he had obtained from his sister, [redacted]. The youth also stated that he was fifteen years of age.

At approximately 9:30 p.m. on the evening of May 10, 1951, SA [redacted] telephonically contacted FRANK J. PARKER, United States Attorney, Eastern District of New York, and advised him of the basic facts of this case and requested Mr. PARKER's opinion as to what disposition should be made of the subject. Mr. PARKER instructed that subject be permitted to return to the home of his parents for the evening of May 10, 1951 until the morning of May 11, 1951, at which time he be picked up by agents of the Bureau and brought to his office.

On May 11, 1951, SA [redacted] and the writer picked up the subject at his home at [redacted]. At that time the subject's older sister, [redacted] admitted giving him a piece of stationery identical with that used to write the extortion note, and she furnished samples of this paper to the writer. [redacted] stated that this stationery had been given to her as a Christmas gift.

The subject, accompanied by his mother, was driven to the New York Office where he was fingerprinted and photographed. Handwriting specimens were also obtained, as was a signed statement in which the subject admitted writing and mailing the extortion letter previously set forth in this report to Mr. VANDERBILT. Subject insisted that it was his own idea and that he had no accomplices. He stated that he had gotten the idea to write to Mr. VANDERBILT from a magazine article he had read about Mr. VANDERBILT. Subject stated that he had never been in trouble before, but it was ascertained that in June 1950 he ran away from home and did not return until November 1950, when he was picked up by police in Chestnut Hill, Pennsylvania for being on the streets at twelve o'clock midnight.

At 11:30 a.m. on May 11, 1951, subject was taken to the office of Assistant United States Attorney PHILLIP HIRSCH, Eastern District of New York, where he was interviewed in the presence of his mother, and the nature of the charge against him was explained. [redacted] Probation Officer, Eastern District of New York, was advised of the fact that the subject, a youth, was in custody.

On May 11, 1951, an authorized complaint was filed before United States Commissioner EDWARD FAY, Eastern District of New York, by the writer, charging the subject with violation of Title 18, Sections 5031 and 876, United States Code. The subject was arraigned and in default of $1,000 bond, was remanded to the Federal House of Detention.

On May 16, 1951 the FBI Laboratory advised that two latent fingerprints developed on instant extortion letter were identified as prints of the subject, and it was also concluded in the specimens of subject's handwriting that the subject prepared instant extortion letter.

On May 17, 1951, the subject consented to be tried as a juvenile delinquent and an information was filed before United States Judge ROBERT A. INCH, Eastern District of New York, who appointed counsel and remanded the subject to the Federal House of Detention in default of $1,000 bond. On May 21, 1951, the subject was tried as a juvenile delinquent in the chambers of Judge INCH, and was found guilty. On May 24, 1951, Judge INCH recommended that the subject be sent for the term of his minority to the Natural Bridge Camp, Greenlee Virginia.

NY 9-1673

According to the FBI Identification Division, subject, [REDACTED] has no previous criminal record.

The victim is described as follows:

PAROLE REPORT

DETAILS OF OFFENSE

On May 2, 1951, at Elmont, New York, the subject, a youth fifteen years of age, mailed a letter to Mr. A. VANDERBILT, Belmont Race Track, Elmont, Long Island, New York, directing VANDERBILT to appear at Gate 6 on May 10, 1951 and bring with him $10,000 or he killed.

On May 17, 1951, subject was arraigned on an information before Federal Judge ROBERT A. INCH, Eastern District of New York, as a juvenile delinquent, in violation of Title 18, Sections 5031 and 876, United States Code. On May 21, 1951, subject was found guilty in a trial before Judge INCH, and on May 24, 1951 Judge INCH recommended that the subject be sentenced to the term of his minority to the Natural Bridge Camp, Greenlee, Virginia.

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES

The subject not only mailed an extortion note to the victim with a threat to kill him, but he also appeared at the scene of the pay-off and although he did not approach the victim directly, he acted in such a way as to draw attention to himself, and when he was picked up for questioning by agents of the FBI it was noted that he was carrying a

F. B. I. Seizes Boy With Toy Gun For Vanderbilt Extortion Threat

In a case marked by the utmost secrecy, a frightened 15-year-old Nassau County schoolboy was brought into Brooklyn Federal Court yesterday to face a charge of seeking to extort $10,000 from Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, society and race track figure.

The youngster, whose identity was withheld, had sent a letter to Mr. Vanderbilt threatening to take the sportsman's life if the money was not forthcoming. He had only a toy pistol on him when arrested by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on Thursday night.

But he was sent to the Federal House of Detention last night when he failed to post the $1,000 bail fixed after an arrangement was made with State Commissioner Edward H. Fay.

Mr. Vanderbilt received the detention. He said the prisoner might face the formal charge of extortion next week. If convicted, the boy could be sentenced to twenty years in prison and be fined $5,000.

FBI Seizes Boy Trying to Levy on A. G. Vanderbilt

NEW YORK, May 11 (U.P.).—A 15-year-old boy has been arrested on charges of threatening the life of wealthy sportsman Alfred G. Vanderbilt in an attempt to extort $10,000 from him, Federal officials said today.

FBI agents seized the youth at Pelmont race track, where Vanderbilt was instructed in a note to bring the money.

They found a toy gun on the boy.

On direction of United States Attorney Frank Parker, FBI agents turned the youth over to his parents last night. Officials refused to reveal the boy's name.

United States Commissioner Edward Fay ordered him held today under $10,000 bond on charges of violating the Juvenile Delinquency Act rather than on charges of extortion.

Youth Is Seized After Threat To Kill Vanderbilt

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—A 15-year-old boy who intended to extort $10,000 from wealthy sportsman Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt at Belmont race track on threat of killing him has been arrested, the FBI announced today.

The youth was arrested last night. His identity was not disclosed. He was placed in his parents' custody pending possible court action.

Carries Toy Cap Pistol

Edward F. Schmidt, special agent for the New York FBI, said the boy sent a letter May 3 demanding the money from Vanderbilt. The pay-off was to be at gate 6 of Belmont race track at 8 p.m. last night.

The boy, dressed in a blue sweater and blue jeans and carrying a toy cap pistol, waited near the gate.

He admitted writing the note, and said he got the idea after seeing Vanderbilt's photograph in a racing magazine two weeks ago, Schmidt reported.

Schmidt said the note read in part:

"If you or anyone I will kill you and whoever you tell and if you do not have the money I will kill you."

"This Is No Joke"

The note a postscript saying:

"This is no joke."

The boy lives in Elmont, N. Y., near the track.

The note was addressed to the track and received there by Vanderbilt. The sportsman is a member of the Belmont track and one of the Maryland key club.

The boy was arrested after a search of the track.

A spokesman said he is the son of the late Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt who was in the sinking of the Lusitania and Mrs. Margaret Emerson, Bromo Seltzer heiress.

Boy and Cap Gun Fail to Get Cash From Vanderbilt

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP) — A boy, armed at gunpoint by FBI men as he held a cap pistol in hand, at Belmont Park today was held as an extortionist who threatened to kill Alfred Gayne, Vanderbilt, unless the man gave him $1,000.

The boy, a 15-year-old, was held by FBI agents at Belmont Park today. He was held as an extortionist who threatened to kill Alfred Gayne, Vanderbilt, unless the man gave him $1,000.

The boy, a 15-year-old, was held by FBI agents at Belmont Park today. He was held as an extortionist who threatened to kill Alfred Gayne, Vanderbilt, unless the man gave him $1,000.

Agents said the blue-eyed boy was lucky he was not shot to death. In the fading light, he was difficult to spot. Had he made a move with the cap pistol, he would have been the fire of the FBI men. He had no way of knowing when they were dealing.

"This Is No Joke"

"I will kill you and whoever you tell and I will do it have the money I will kill you," read a letter received by Vanderbilt a few days before. It fixed the meeting place and bore a postscript which said: "This is no joke."

The boy's name also was withheld.

Vanderbilt is president of the International Racine Association of the United States and is a member of Belmont Park and the M. I.

The boy, a 15-year-old, was held by FBI agents at Belmont Park today. He was held as an extortionist who threatened to kill Alfred Gayne, Vanderbilt, unless the man gave him $1,000.

Had Read About Him

After his capture, he was quizzed by the FBI men for two hours, then was taken home. His mother sat up all night with him. At noon today he was taken to the U. S. attorney's office in Manhattan, where he was questioned for more than an hour. Then, in Brooklyn, the U. S. attorney questioned the boy for three hours. From it all came a statement that the boy got the idea of attempting to get the money from Vanderbilt from reading about him.

The charge against him is juvenile delinquency in that he mailed a threatening letter seeking to extort money. He was held in $1,000 bail to await action of a federal judge next week.

arrested after the boy admitted writing the note.

Parker, a Baltimore man, said, before the boy admitted writing the note and said he got the idea of writing it after seeing Mr. Vanderbilt's picture in a racing magazine two weeks ago. He said when Mr. Vanderbilt had money and had made no other friends, the Sheriff was off.

P. B. I. agents, who were in the city when the boy was arrested, said they had no idea of the boy's name and the motive connected with him.

The boy, who was named, was sent to the United States A. I. Prison, and the boy had been arrested by the United States Attorney Philip Extreme precautions were taken to keep his identity secret and only Mr. Parker, Mr. Hirsch, the boy's mother, two F. B. I. agents and a clerk were present at the arraignment before Commissioner Fay.

Mr. Fay advised the youth of his rights and asked if a lawyer be desired. The boy, who had his hands cuffed, said he wanted a pot of gold. The boy, who had been turned over to the United States Marshal, John J. Smith, who took him to the House of Detention, 247 West Street. Mr. Parker directed that the boy be segregated from adult prisoners.

Mr. Parker said the case would probably come up in a week and that in the meantime Conrad P. Friedman, chief probation officer of the Eastern District, who interviewed the boy after his arrest, would be in charge of the case.

F. B. I. agents were warned, but they were not to be taken to determine if the boy had acted on his own initiative or had been prompted to do so by an older person.

Mr. Vanderbilt, who was in Baltimore yesterday, could not be reached immediately for comment.
